

Questioning?

Less Powerful Questions

More Powerful Questions

Quick Finds:

Usually one answer

Deeper Thinking:

Many different answers

- What were locks used for?
- When were they invented?
- What were they made of?
- Who invented them?
- How were locks made?
- Were there different kinds of locks?
- Who used locks?
- How were they opened?
- What did the keys look like?
- Did people's houses have locks?
- Did the kinds of locks evolve?
- Did locks from ancient Egypt influence the locks of today?
- Did other civilizations use locks?

How were locks used in Ancient Egypt?

How did locks benefit ancient cultures?

How did the invention of locks benefit ancient cultures and contribute to evolution of locks of today?

Can you improve these inquiry questions?

Less Powerful Questions

More Powerful Questions

Yes/no Which Who When Where What How Why What If

Does Vancouver have public transportation?

What kinds of public transportation does Vancouver have?

What if there were no pub trans in Van?

How does pub trans benefit Vancouver?

Which kinds of resources are available in the DRC?

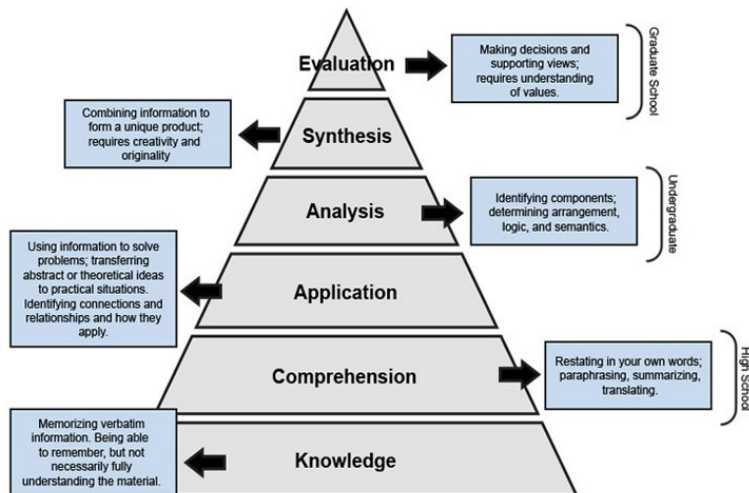

Do other countries use the resources of the DRC?

How do the resources of the DRC impact the rest of the world?

Are the resources of the DRC available to the rest of the world?

How do the resources of the DRC affect my life?

Bloom's Taxonomy

Which country leader has the most world influence?

How do country leaders impact the world?

How are national governments connected?

Why are some leaders so influential?

Does being an influential national leader benefit the world?

Do all national leaders want to influence other countries?